

Heritage Baptist College is located about 15 miles south of Indianapolis, just outside the lovely city of Franklin, IN. Most college classes meet in the large facilities of the First Mount Pleasant Baptist Church of Franklin. The kind folks of the church, along with many others from across the county, donated thousands of dollars for remodeling to provide ample space to house the college classrooms, offices, chapel, library, men's dorm rooms, and other student areas.

Directions: State Rd. 44 has an exit off I-65 at the 90 mile marker. At that point travel west through Franklin. The college is located in the rolling countryside at 952 W. State Rd. 44 about three miles south west of Franklin, IN, approximately $\frac{2}{3}$ of the way between U.S. Highway 31 and State Rd. 135.

